Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY IN SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT (SHRI NAGMANI)

(a) to (f) The Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment is implementing a Scheme called `An Integrated Programme for Street Children` with the aim to prevent destitution among children and to facilitate their withdrawal from a life on streets as well as placement into national mainstream. While no study has been carried out to determine the number of street children in the country, the number of street children benefited under the scheme during 2002-03, State-wise are given at annexure-I.

Regular inspections of the projects being implemented under the Scheme indicate that the objectives of providing shelter, nutrition, health care, sanitation and hygiene, education and recreation facilities etc. to the destitute and neglected street children are being achieved by and large. The purpose of the inspections being carried out regularly for these projects is to ensure that living condition of these children is of minimum acceptable standards. Projects not meeting these standards are not sanctioned grant-in-aid.

The details of financial assistance provided to the Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs), during the last three years and the current year (till 11.08.2003), State-wise are given at annexure-II.
